

KATHLEEN VAN ANTWERP, Ed.D

Executive Co-Director of Full Circle Consulting Systems, Inc.
Executive Director of the Ventura County Child Abuse Prevention Council
Lead Trainer/Consultant Statewide Law Enforcement Agencies
Certified Mental Health Trainer/ National Center for Youth Opportunity & Justice
State Certified Trainer /Board of Community Corrections
Co-Author/"I Can't Come To School Today...My Mom's In Prison And I Don't Have A Ride"

Dr. Van Antwerp is a leader in juvenile justice, youth outreach, and educational reform. For over 30 years she has been at the forefront of developing effective educational and youth outreach programs for at-risk children & adolescents in public schools, court and community schools, emergency care shelters, foster care, and juvenile hall. She has led the way in introducing the science of child and adolescent development to juvenile crime prevention programs, law enforcement agencies, probation officers, and juvenile court judges, directly transforming the operations of youth outreach centers throughout the United States, England, Austria, and Amsterdam. With over twenty years of classroom teaching experience, primarily with at-risk students, she has taught Child and Adolescent Development, and Education at California State University, Northridge, California State University, Channel Islands, Moorpark College and is currently a Core Adjunct Faculty member at National University teaching a wide variety of courses. Her work has been published in books and journals nationally and internationally.

SENTA GREENE, M.A., CCLS CERTIFIED CHILD LIFE SPECIALIST

Founder & Executive Co-Director of Full Circle Consulting Systems, Inc.
Certified Child Life Specialist
Inclusion, Diversity and Equity Trainer Statewide Education Agencies
Certified Mental Health Trainer / National Center for Youth Opportunity & Justice
Co-Author/"I Can't Come To School Today...My Mom's In Prison And I Don't Have A Ride"

Senta is the Founder and Co-Executive Director of Full Circle Consulting Systems, Inc., an international consulting firm specializing in innovative and highly organized services to departments and ministries of education, county offices of education, school districts, youth organizations, children's hospitals, and law enforcement. Mrs. Greene is an award-winning child and human development specialist who embodies more than 25 years of experience in working with children, youth, and families from diverse backgrounds. As a skilled facilitator, her work has been the catalytic action for innovative programs and curriculum, groundbreaking policy development and achievements in systems change in the United States, Austria, China, Finland and Jamaica. Her devotion to education and expertise in children's development has earned her several honors including testifying before the United States Congress, and recognition as a distinguished and award-winning Instructor at California State University, Northridge in the departments of Special Education and Child and Adolescent Development. Mrs. Greene has served on many statewide advisories for the California Department of Education including: Responsive Early Education for Boys of Color, Culture and Family Partnerships and WestEd's Program for Infant-Toddler Care (PITC).

Kathleen & Senta have over 30 years as leaders in community cross-sector collaboration. In their unique co-director style, they unite their voices to engage multi-disciplinary participants in an educational and multi-cultural approach to leadership training, strategic planning, and exploring critical issues through courageous conversations, developing reflective practice, and cultural humility.

FullCircleConsultingSystems.com